

Camp Douglas Restoration

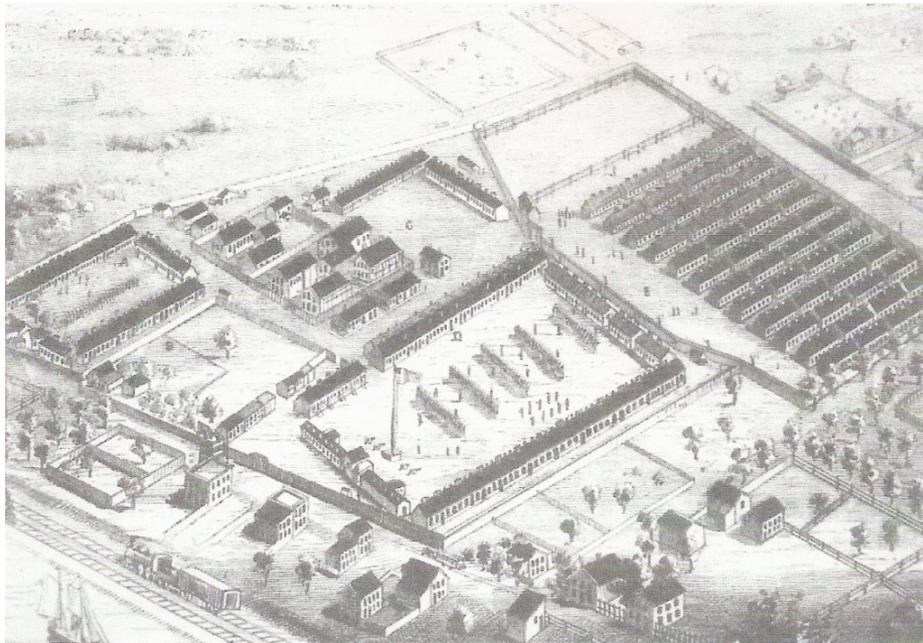

Foundation

CAMP DOUGLAS

September 1861-December 1865

(A Chicago Story That Must Be Told)

Camp Douglas Restoration Foundation

Indiana Civil War Facts

- Governor Oliver T. Morton, Republican with a Democratic controlled General Assembly
- Obtained $2 million loans from Madison, IN banker James Lanier- Repaid in 1864
- Robert Cameron, Valporaiso-19th Indiana (Iron Brigade) and 34th Indiana

Camp Douglas Restoration

Foundation

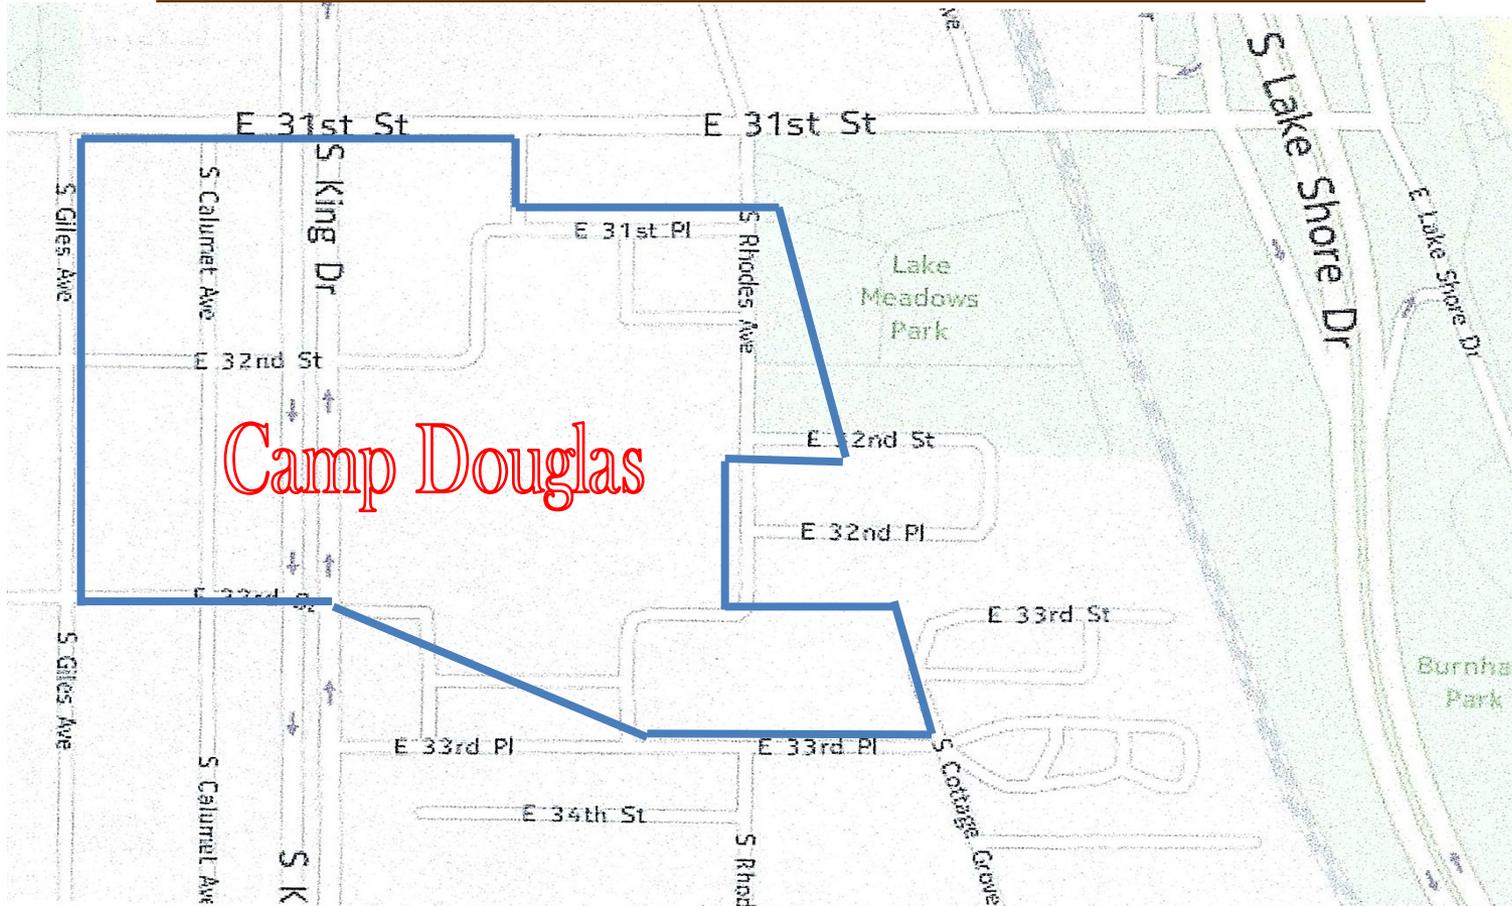

Lew Wallace 15th Indiana Infantry
Regiment-Missionary Ridge flag

- 196,363 Soldiers from Indiana entered the Union Army
- 26,672 deaths or 13.58% of total. Highest percent in the Union
- If 9.25% of population fought today, would be 599,752 total
- 105 Indiana Soldiers died in Andersonville prison
- 47 received the Medal of Honor at Vicksburg
- 4 Regiments organized in Michigan City and La Porte
- Morgan's Raiders-Southeastern Indiana

Camp Douglas Restoration Foundation

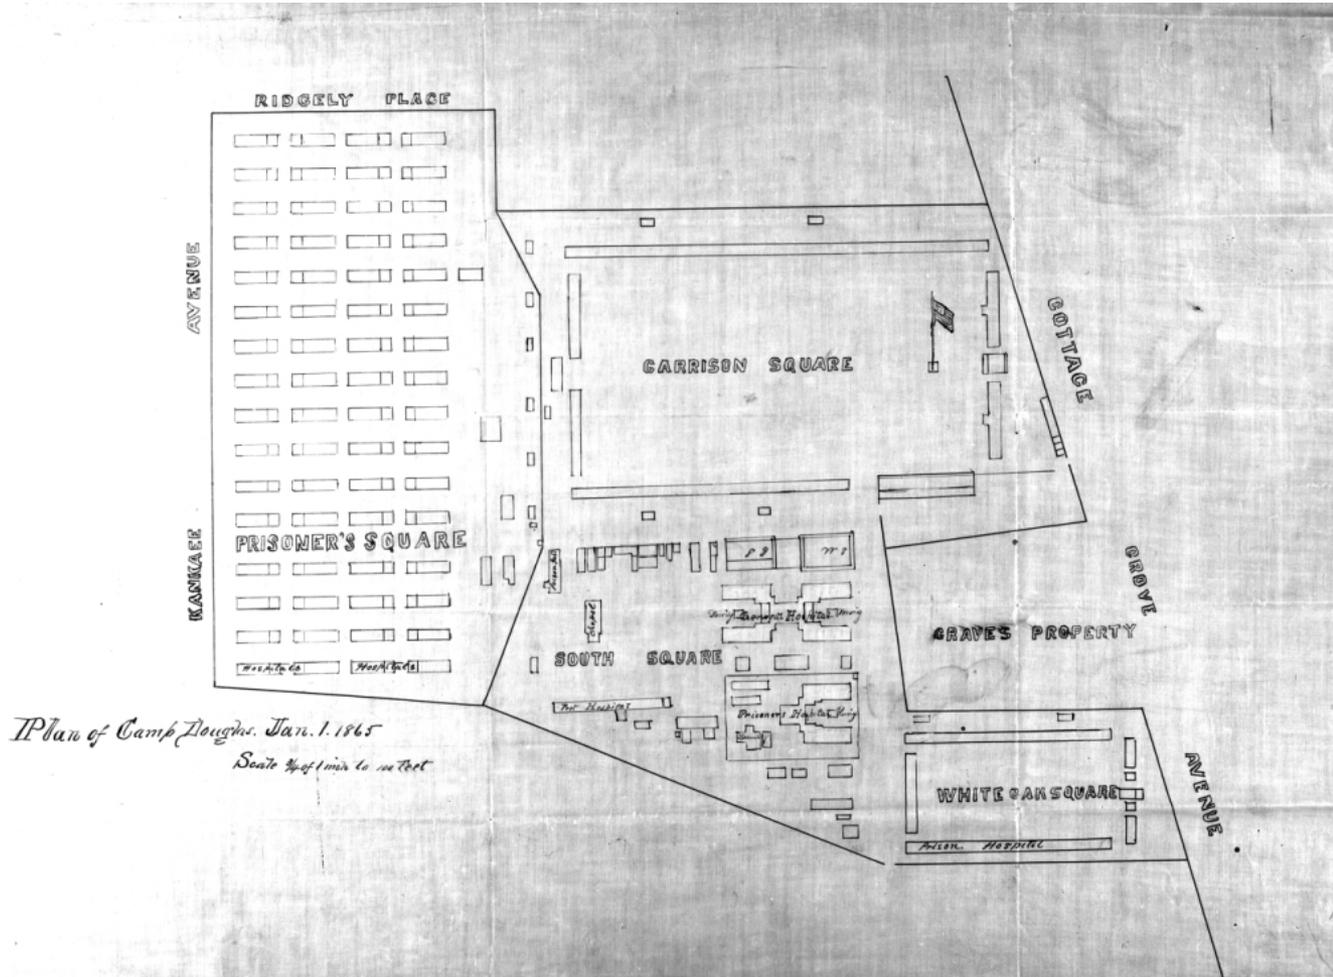

Camp Douglas Restoration Foundation

Camp Douglas Restoration Foundation

Camp Douglas Restoration

Foundation

CAMP DOUGLAS-History

September 1861-Opened

February 1862-First Prisoners Arrive

December 1865-Closed

Camp Douglas Restoration

Foundation

CAMP DOUGLAS-Facts

- ❖ Approximately 60 acres total size
- ❖ Union troops trained-nearly 40,000
- ❖ One of 8 Union camps to train African American soldiers
- ❖ One of longest operating prisons in Civil War
- ❖ Greatest number of prisoner deaths in Union prisons
- ❖ Contained 200 buildings
- ❖ 66 prison barracks
- ❖ Total prisoners-about 30,000, 12,082 most held at one time
- ❖ Documented prison deaths due to diseases 4,009 of 70,088 cases treated
- ❖ Total prisoner deaths-estimated approximately 5,000

Camp Douglas Restoration

Foundation

Reasons for Loss of Life

- Poor Sanitary Conditions
- Lack of natural immunity due to rural environment
- Condition of prisoners & Diet Change
- Inadequate and primitive medical care

Camp Douglas Restoration Foundation

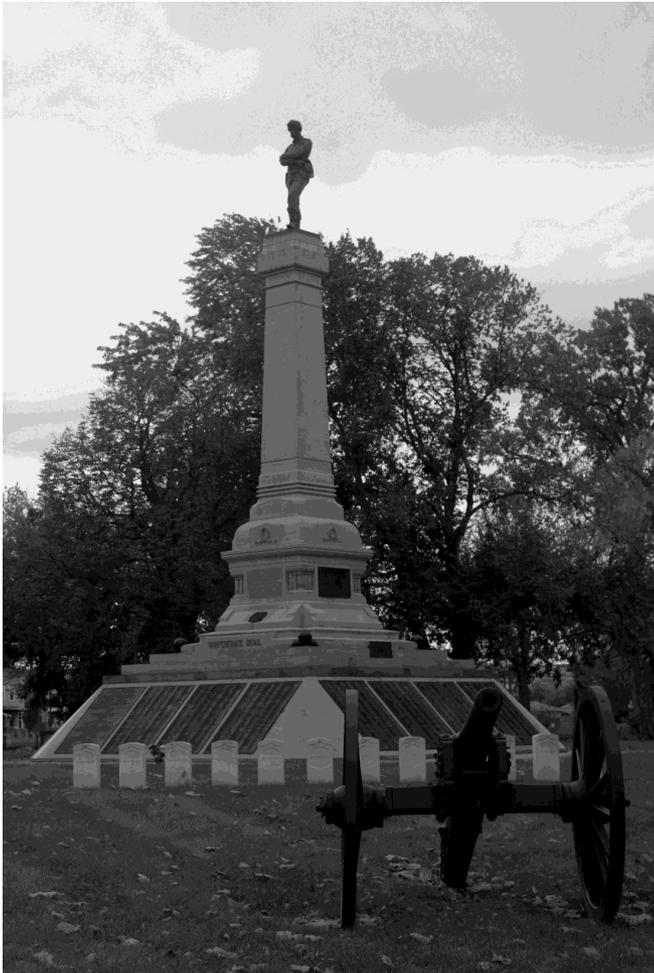

Factors Creating Conditions

- No history of prisoner incarceration
- Lack of plan for long term incarceration
- Poor training of leadership, guards and prisoners
- High leadership turnover

Camp Douglas Restoration

Foundation

Oak Woods Cemetery
67th & Cottage Grove
Chicago

Estimated up to 6,000
Confederate remains buried there. 4,243 are identified by name

Monument dedicated in 1895

*More confederate soldiers buried in Chicago than anywhere north of the
Mason-Dixon Line*

Camp Douglas Restoration Foundation

Morgan's Raiders prisoners at Camp Douglas

Camp Douglas Restoration Foundation

CAMP DOUGLAS-Little Known Deeds and Doers

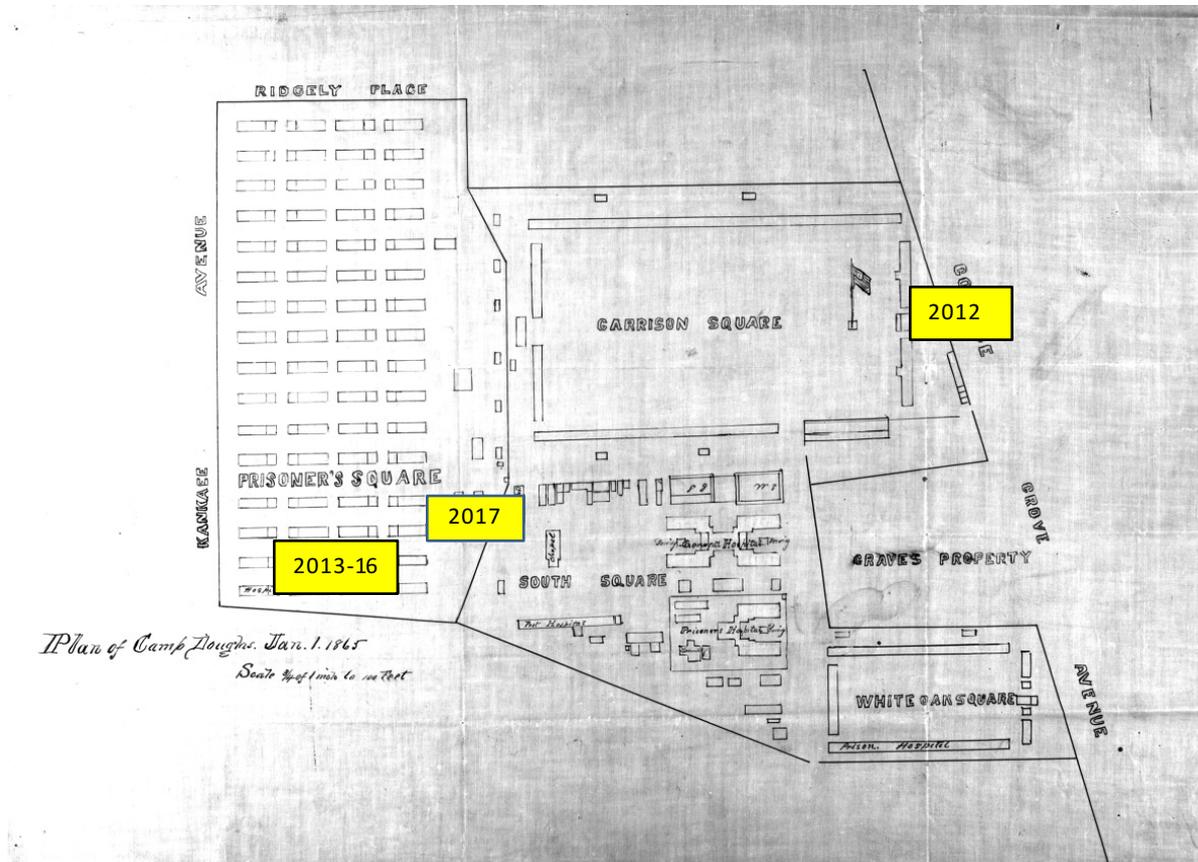

- ❖ Robert Anderson Bagby-Prisoner January 1863 until mid-1865
- ❖ James Blanchard's escapes
- ❖ John Miller-Saloonkeeper & Prisoner
- ❖ Young Man and His Mother
- ❖ Lt. Fife's Dog
- ❖ Wm. Huff, 14th Louisiana Infantry
- ❖ Description of Guards

Camp Douglas Restoration Foundation

Excavation Sites

Camp Douglas Restoration

Foundation

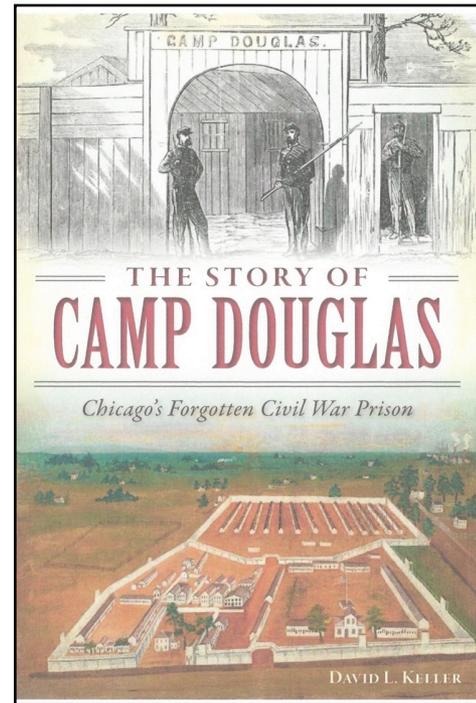

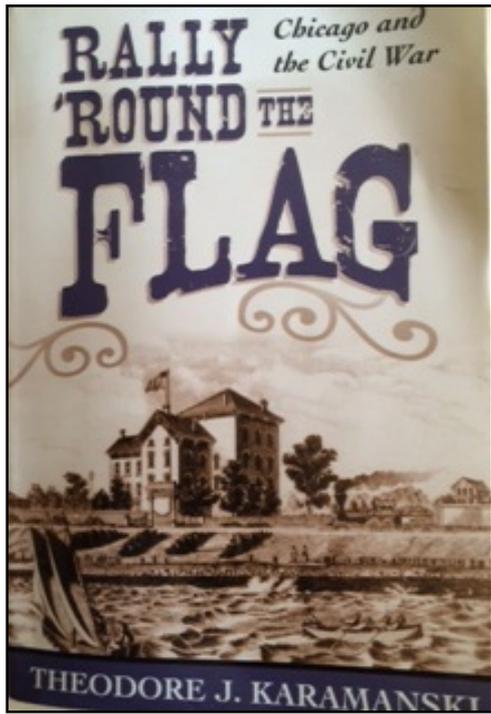

Camp Douglas Restoration Foundation

For Further Information

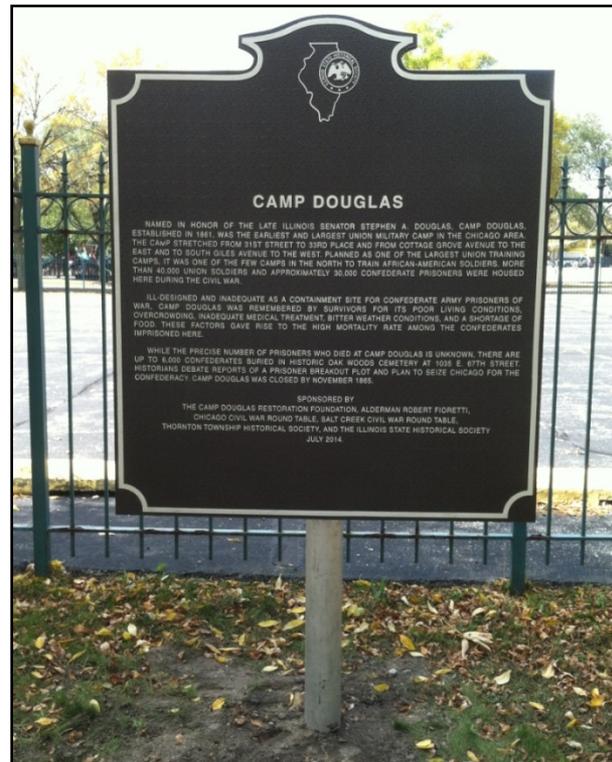

Available-Spring 2015

Camp Douglas Restoration Foundation

Historic Marker

West side of M. L. King Drive north of 33rd Street

Camp Douglas Restoration Foundation

Application is being Prepared for listing on the National Register of Historic Places

To support

Send Letters to:

Camp Douglas Restoration Foundation
1368 N. Mohawk 2S
Chicago, IL 60610

Or

Sign on to petition of support on our website:

<https://www.campdouglas.org>.

Camp Douglas Restoration Foundation

www.campdouglas.org